NOTICE OF RELEVANT AUTHORITY

COMES NOW the Department of Justice (“DOJ”), through its undersigned counsel, and advises the Court of a recent unclassified decision issued by the United States Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (“FISC”) in In re: Motion for Release of Court Records, Docket No. 07-01 (FISA Ct., Dec. 11, 2007) (Bates, J.), which denies a motion filed by the American Civil Liberties Union made to the FISC for release of certain surveillance orders, including those at issue in this case. The FISC Order may be of assistance to the Court’s consideration of plaintiff’s pending Motion for Reconsideration (Docket No. 16), which asks this Court to reconsider its Order of August 14, 2007 (Docket No. 17), wherein the Court granted summary judgment to DOJ in this case arising under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552. A copy of Judge Bates’s December 11, 2007, decision is attached for the convenience of the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER D. KIESLER
Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division

JEFFREY A. TAYLOR
United States Attorney

JOSEPH H. HUNT
Director, Federal Programs Branch
