Lee: Per our discussion at the Director's meeting with SACs in [redacted] on Thursday, attached is a possible NSL form draft which might be considered as a template or macro for NSLs. This was prepared by [redacted] CDC [redacted]

Background: I have heard from several sources that requests to various entities might be unduly delayed because our NSLs are transmitted in a letter format, which lacks the formality of a subpoena or administrative subpoena. Each office prepares its own letters. It occurred to me that giving the NSL a form that looks more formal might be a good way to get attention and quicker action.
